O GOOD SAINT JOSEPH . . .

After four years at Mount St. Joseph, we have come to fully appreciate the good saint who is our patron. Because St. Joseph is also our guide, our protector, and our personal friend, we have chosen him as the theme of our yearbook, the 1958 MOUNT.

All through our years of high school, but especially this year, we have brought our joys, our problems, and our troubles to St. Joseph. And because he has watched over us both "in happiness and when our hopes were dim," we feel very close to this fatherly saint.

We believe that he has instilled in us a little of his zeal, his desire "to work for Jesus Christ with every deed and breath." Through his shining example, we have come "to live a better life each day."

As we leave the Academy, we pray that today and every day, he will:

*"Help us to live a holy life,
And die a happy death."*

BECAUSE WE ARE GRATEFUL...

... for the years of service you have devoted to the pupils of Mount St. Joseph—

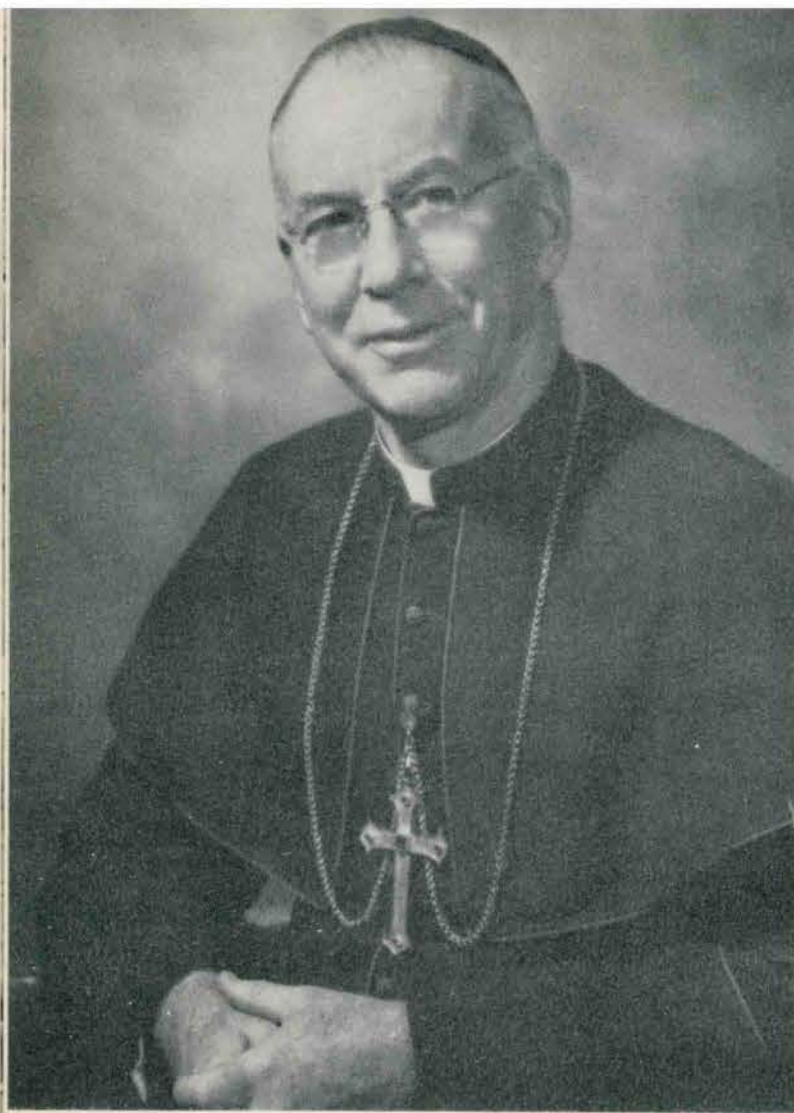

- as teacher, counsellor and guide;
- as advisor to the Mount;
- as a member of the school board;
- as a faithful friend to all in need;

we, the class of 1958, dedicate

our MOUNT

to you,

MOTHER MARY CONCEPTA

MOST REV. ROBERT F. JOYCE
Bishop of Burlington

OUR SHEPHERDS

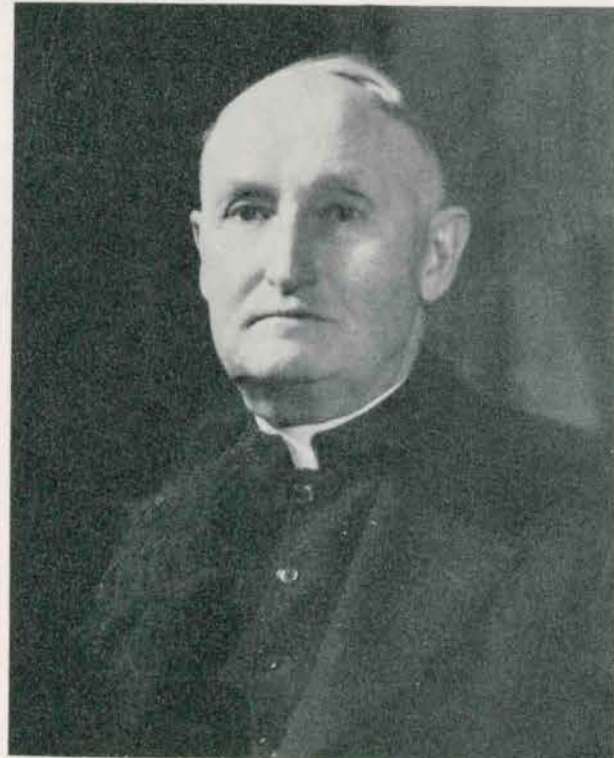

JOSEPH MOST JUST

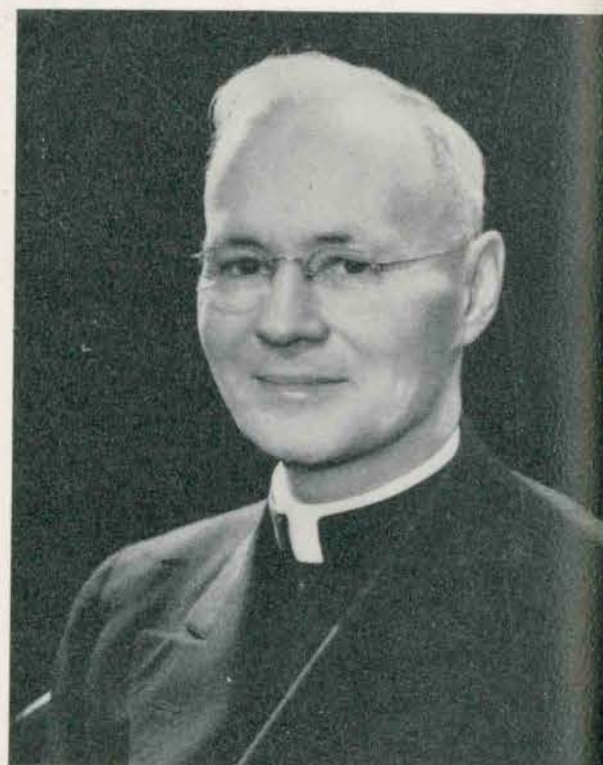

We are indebted to our bishop and our pastors, who have made it possible for us to receive a Catholic education.

BECAUSE OF THEIR TIRELESS EFFORTS,

REV. JOHN A. LYNCH
Principal

MOUNT SAINT JOSEPH ACADEMY
RUTLAND, VERMONT

OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL

To you my good friends of the Class of '58, have come both the privilege and the responsibility of graduates. Congratulations to you and prayers for you are both in order. You have achieved a goal and this is good. May the lessons learned in that achieving stay with you always.

You have also thereby accepted a responsibility. A responsibility to God—to live the truths you have learned. This is the time to remind you that it was Our Lord Himself who said, "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the Kingdom, but he who does the will of my Father."

A responsibility to your country—to take an active part in its burden of world leadership and domestic responsibility. If everyone were as good a citizen as you are, how good a country would our country be?

A responsibility to yourself—no one, including God Himself, can save your soul unless you are willing and active yourself. So many, many things suddenly become unimportant in the light of this consideration.

St. Joseph, however, will be with you always. Turn to him for courage, faith and perseverance.

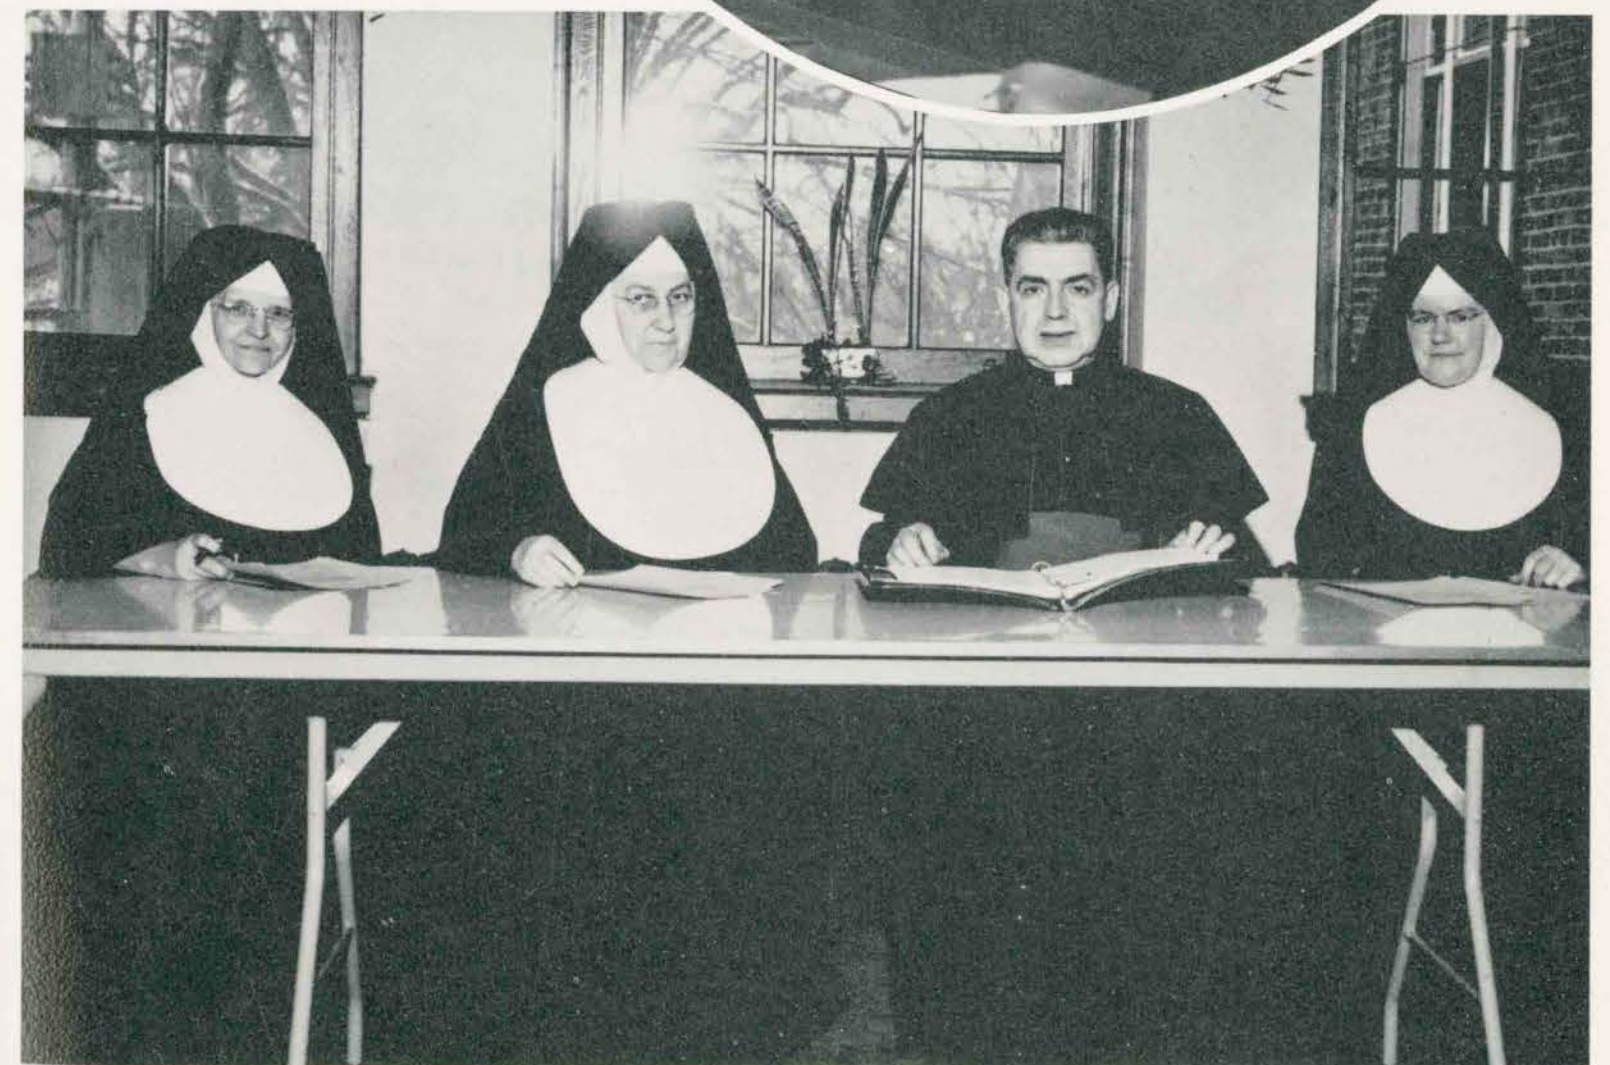

May God Bless You.

M.S.J. CONSECRATION TO ST. JOSEPH

O Glorious St. Joseph, patron of our Sisters and of our School, we are proud of you. Yes, we are proud of this happy but unmerited choice of Almighty God, in giving You to us, and to Him we are grateful. Of all heavenly patrons and protectors you alone merited to be the foster father of the Christ Child. Be a foster father to us as well, we pray. During our student days, teach us faithfulness to duty; after graduation continue to be our protector through life; and in the moment of death, O good St. Joseph, be with us still to bring us safely to the thrones of your only loves, Jesus and Mary.

We the students of M.S.J. re-dedicate our school life to you this day. May this consecration of ourselves to You be effective in forming us in the likeness of Christ. And one last petition, St. Joseph, for our Sisters who, like you, spend themselves in our service. To them we beseech you, St. Joseph, express our gratitude by sustaining them in difficult moments, by blessing their patient efforts in our behalf and by gathering them into your holy family when their life of service is over.

AMEN.

PREPARE YE THE WAY—Sister Elizabeth Marie explains the significance of the Advent wreath to freshmen C. Canney, B. Costello, R. Accorsi, J. LaBrake, T. Connor and A. Burke.

TO KNOW THEE—J. Pellerin, T. Barrett, E. Con-sidine, K. Mulcahy and J. Layden earn Sister Joseph Marie's smile of approval after their oral reports on the life of Christ.

SAINT JOSEPH IS OUR PATRON

Every Wednesday throughout the school year, we assist at noon Mass celebrated by Father Lynch or Father Ready, in honor of St. Joseph.

WEDNESDAY IS HIS DAY —

MARCH IS HIS MONTH —

THE HEART OF M. S. J.—Pupils stop in for a visit with their best Friend.

RELIGION IS A WAY OF LIFE —

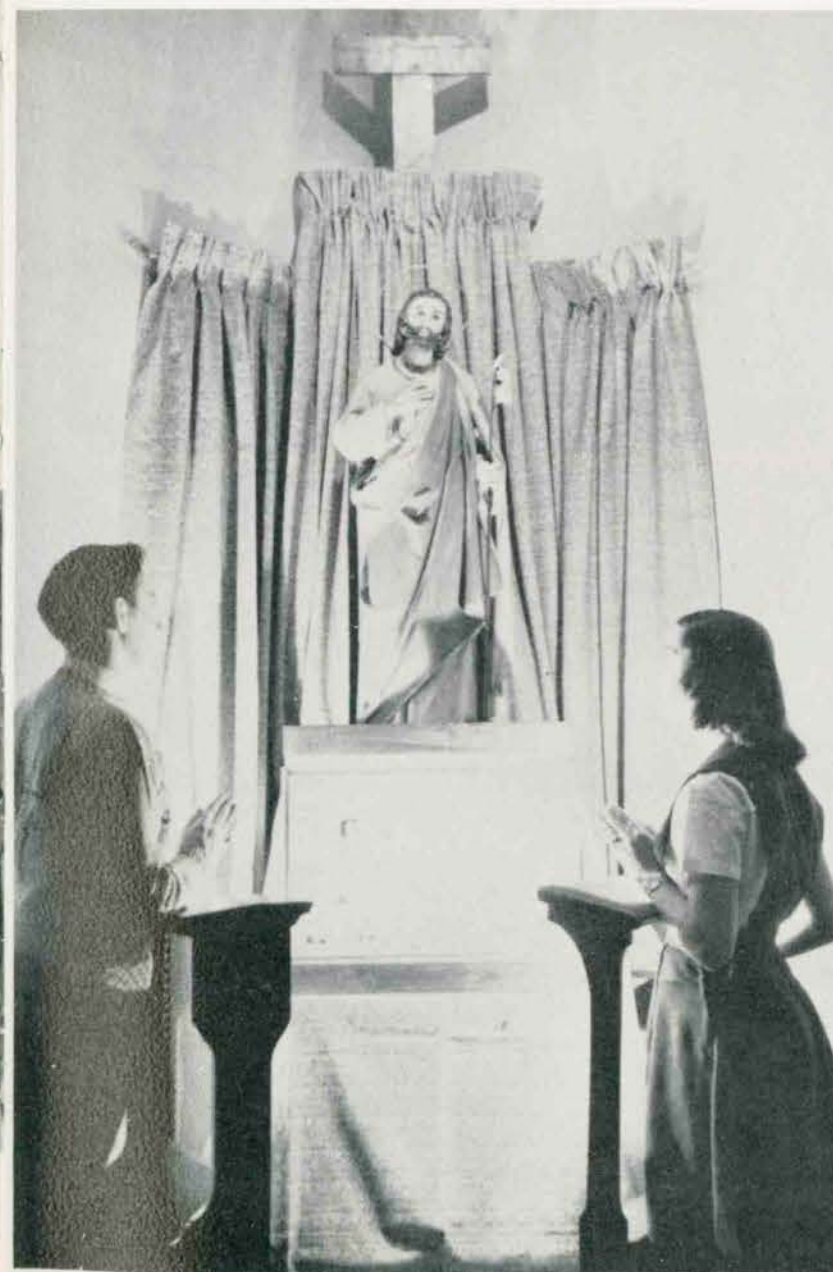

SHE LEADS US TO CHRIST—Jaime Bernier adds the finishing touches to his lovely mural of the Virgin and Child.

YOU DID UNTO ME—Christmas baskets for Christ's poor are traditional at the Academy. Here student council members M. Brown, P. Fontano, S. Gleason, J. Lord, D. Crosby and P. Flory pack supplies brought by their schoolmates.

M. Lawrence, M. Burke, D. Gouchoe, S. Burke, J. Garofano, D. Cotrupi, E. Holden, B. Al-lard, M. Raymond and F. O'Connell assemble gaily wrapped gifts for the children of Brandon State School.

During the month of March, we show our love for St. Joseph in many ways. A shrine is erected in the main corridor. Here students gather at 1:40 for devotions, and here, all during the day, they stop in small groups to greet their Patron.

In March, the Wednesday religion period is given to St. Joseph. Sister Bernard Michele's freshmen, G. Wilder, P. Burke, M. Ford and P. Miglorie take part in a discussion.

Each classroom has its shrine in honor of St. Joseph . . .

D. Pockette and D. Frankiewicz use a bulletin board for theirs . . .

C. Fleming and M. Zullo prefer a shelf.

Sister M. Imelda and seniors, James Garafano, Therese Dalto, Sandra Grace and John Gilligan listen attentively to a recording of the poems of Robert Frost.

Progress in reading is the aim of Dorothy Frankiewicz, Charles Reardon, Ruth Underhill and Edward Whalen, all pupils in Sister John David's Developmental Reading class.

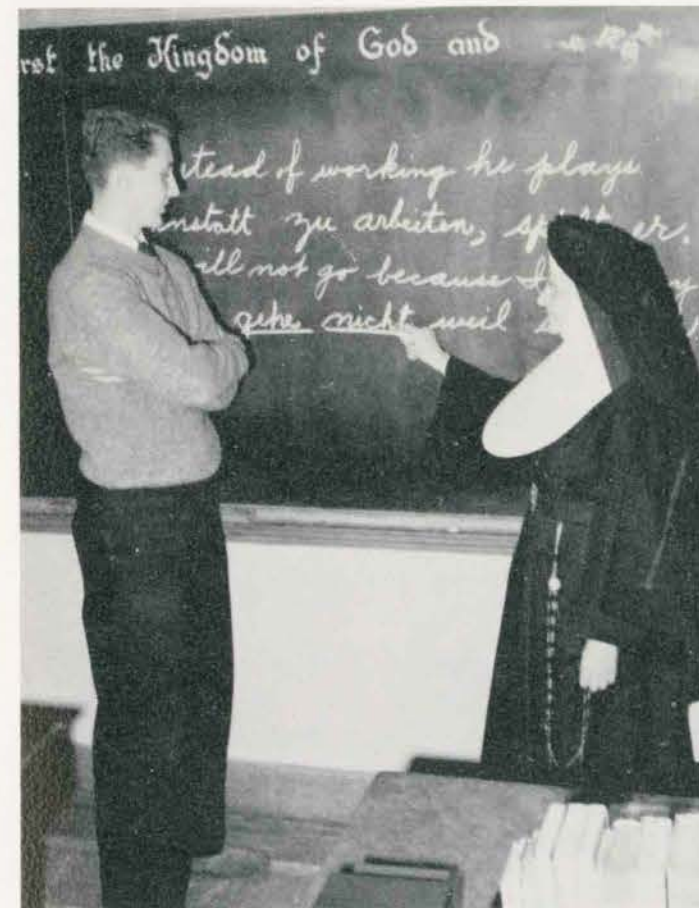

Pointing to eye-catching book jackets made by the Freshmen are: Jean Maroney, Louise Palutto, Barbara Shortsleeve, Richard Ellis and John Dougherty.

Academy students take time out for study and research in the library under the supervision of Sister M. Monica.

FOR THEIRS IS THE GIFT OF TONGUES

WOLLEN SIE AUCH DIE DEUTSCHE SPRACHE LERNEN? You would? Then Brian Eldredge urges you to join Sister Clementine's German class.

ON PARLE FRANÇAIS in Mr. Martin's class, as C. Ellison, P. Carle, A. O'Rourke, J. Cotrupi and R. Gilmore can attest.

BUENAS TARDAS, MUCHACHAS! Sister Miriam Teresa greets Spanish pupils, M. Collins, J. Bizzaro, A. Polzello, P. Cavallo and A. Johnson.

Sister Elizabeth Marie's Latin I Pupils are mastering the fine art of verb conjugation.

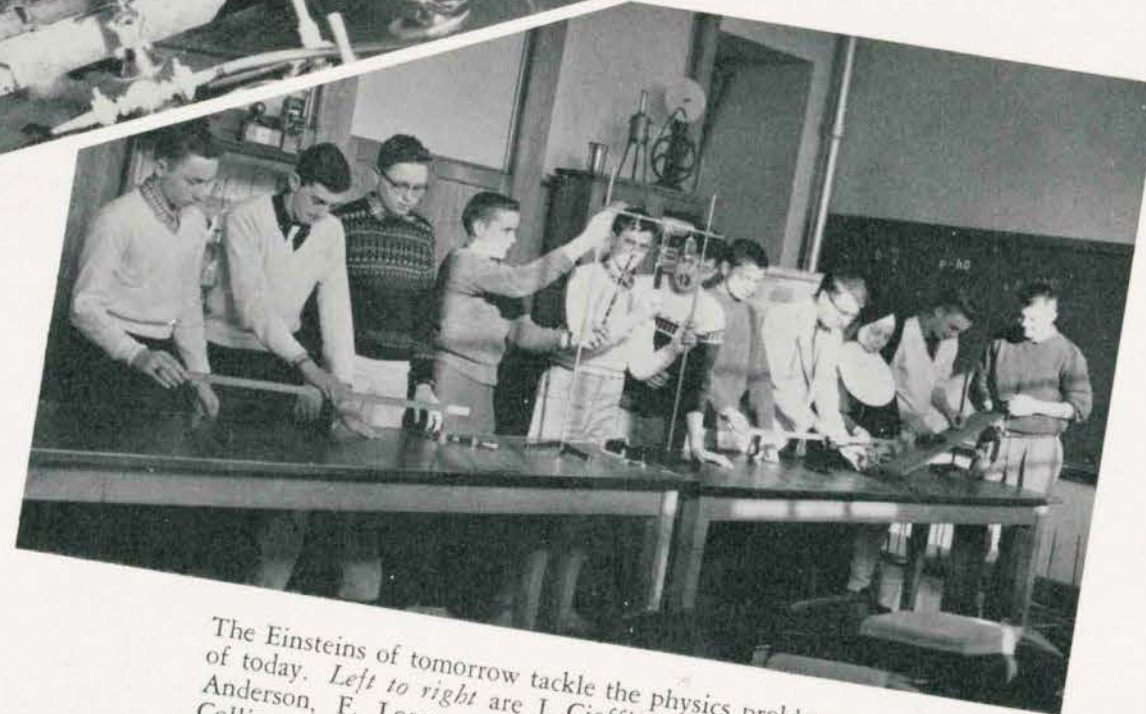

Roman Senators are these Cicero students, N. Cannon, N. Parsons, F. O'Connell, L. Reilly and L. Abbott.

SCIENCE AND SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH HAVE NOTHING TO FEAR

Young scientists are illumined by an experiment proving the theory of ionization. T. Terenzini, J. Garofano, D. Gouchoe, J. Eggleston, E. Holden, D. Small, P. Fontano, D. Cotrupi, M. A. Burke and A. Hurley are pictured in chemistry lab.

Sister Helena guides Biology pupils G. McClallen, F. Altrui, D. Small, S. Johnson and M. Roy through the biographical mysteries of the fern.

Mr. Farrell looks on as freshmen M. McGinnis, M. Vail, L. McGrath, and R. West illustrate General Science problems by the use of diagrams.

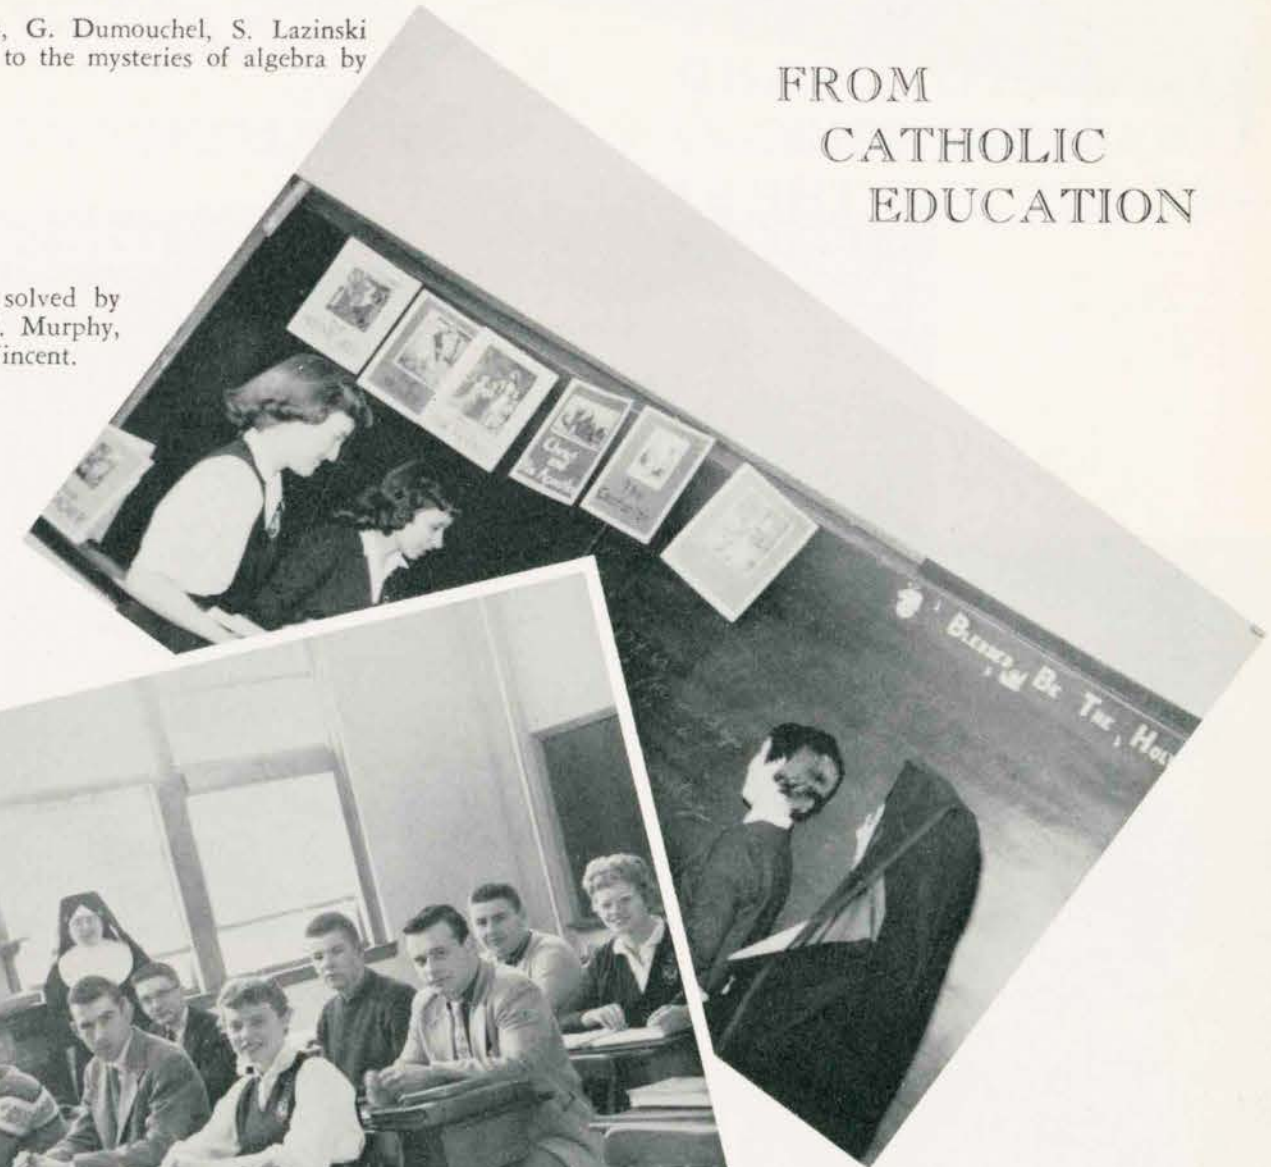

Beginners M. Connors, M. Layden, G. Dumouchel, S. Lazinski and B. Reilly are gently introduced to the mysteries of algebra by Sister Mirian Teresa.

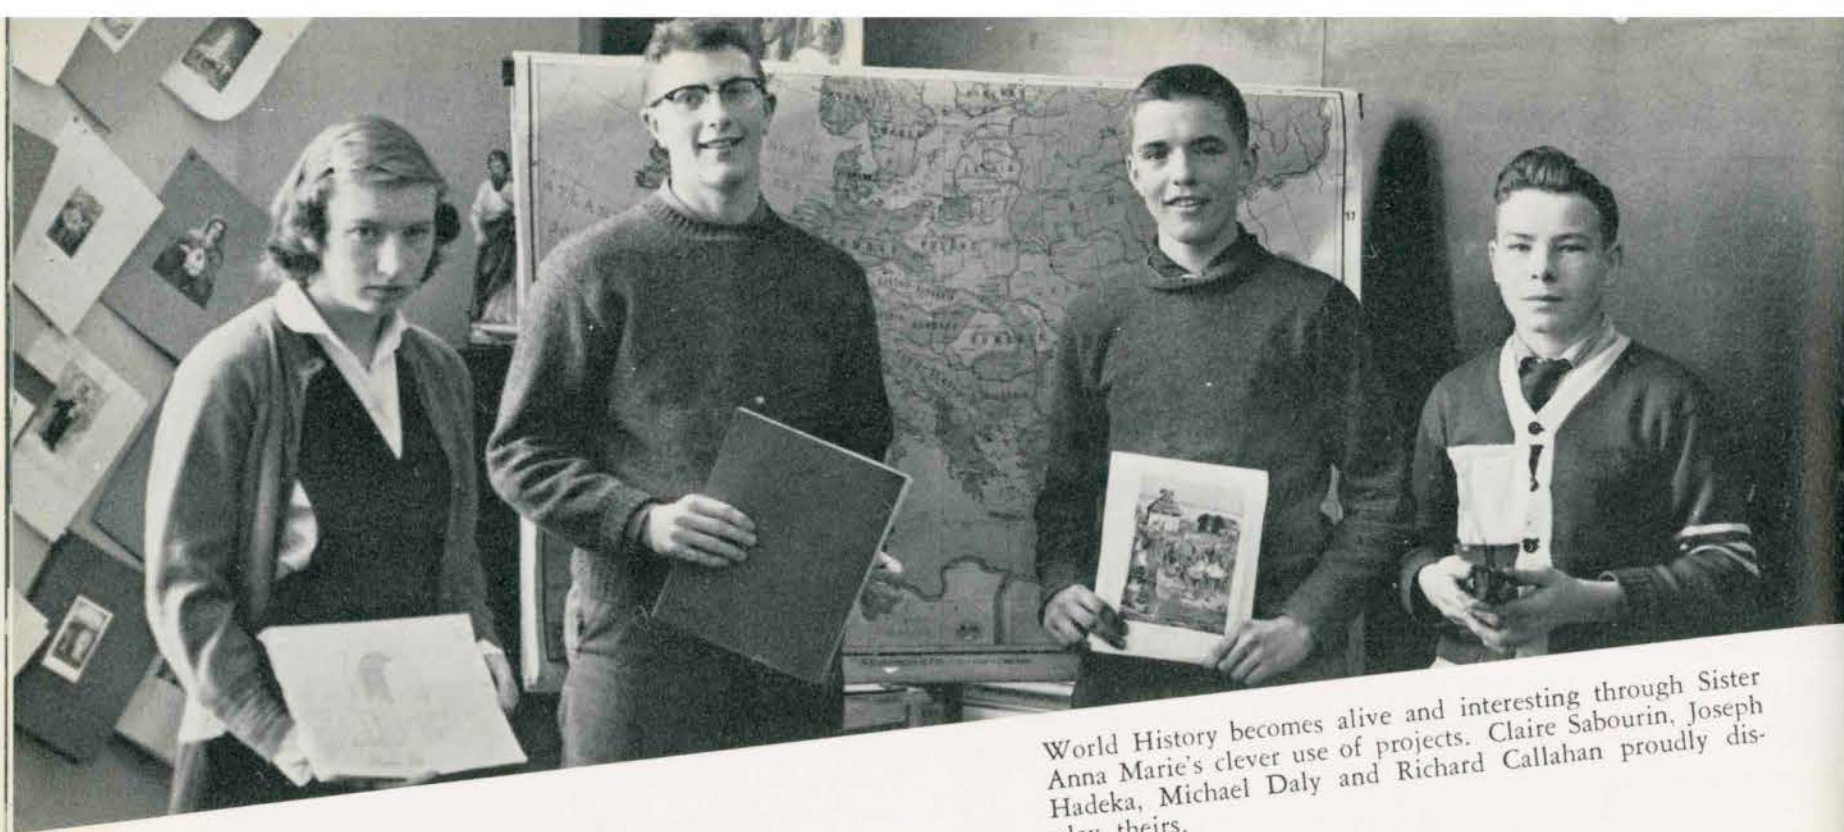

C. Cillo, W. Egan, J. Carvey and R. LaMotte tell their geometry teacher, Sister Ancilla, how they would measure an inscribed angle.

FROM CATHOLIC EDUCATION

Business math problems are solved by M. Lord, D. DeBlois, and E. Murphy, to the satisfaction of Sister Vincent.

Trig and solid present no problems to Sister Agnes Marie's senior mathematicians, J. Garofano, D. Gouchoe, R. Taylor, J. Eggleston, E. Layden, E. Dumouchel, D. Small, R. Navin, G. Farrell, T. Terenzini and E. Holden.

World History becomes alive and interesting through Sister Anna Marie's clever use of projects. Claire Sabourin, Joseph Hadeka, Michael Daly and Richard Callahan proudly display theirs.

A GOOD CITIZEN AND A GOOD CATHOLIC ARE ONE AND THE SAME THING

Senior American History students presented an informative program on the First Constitutional Congress.

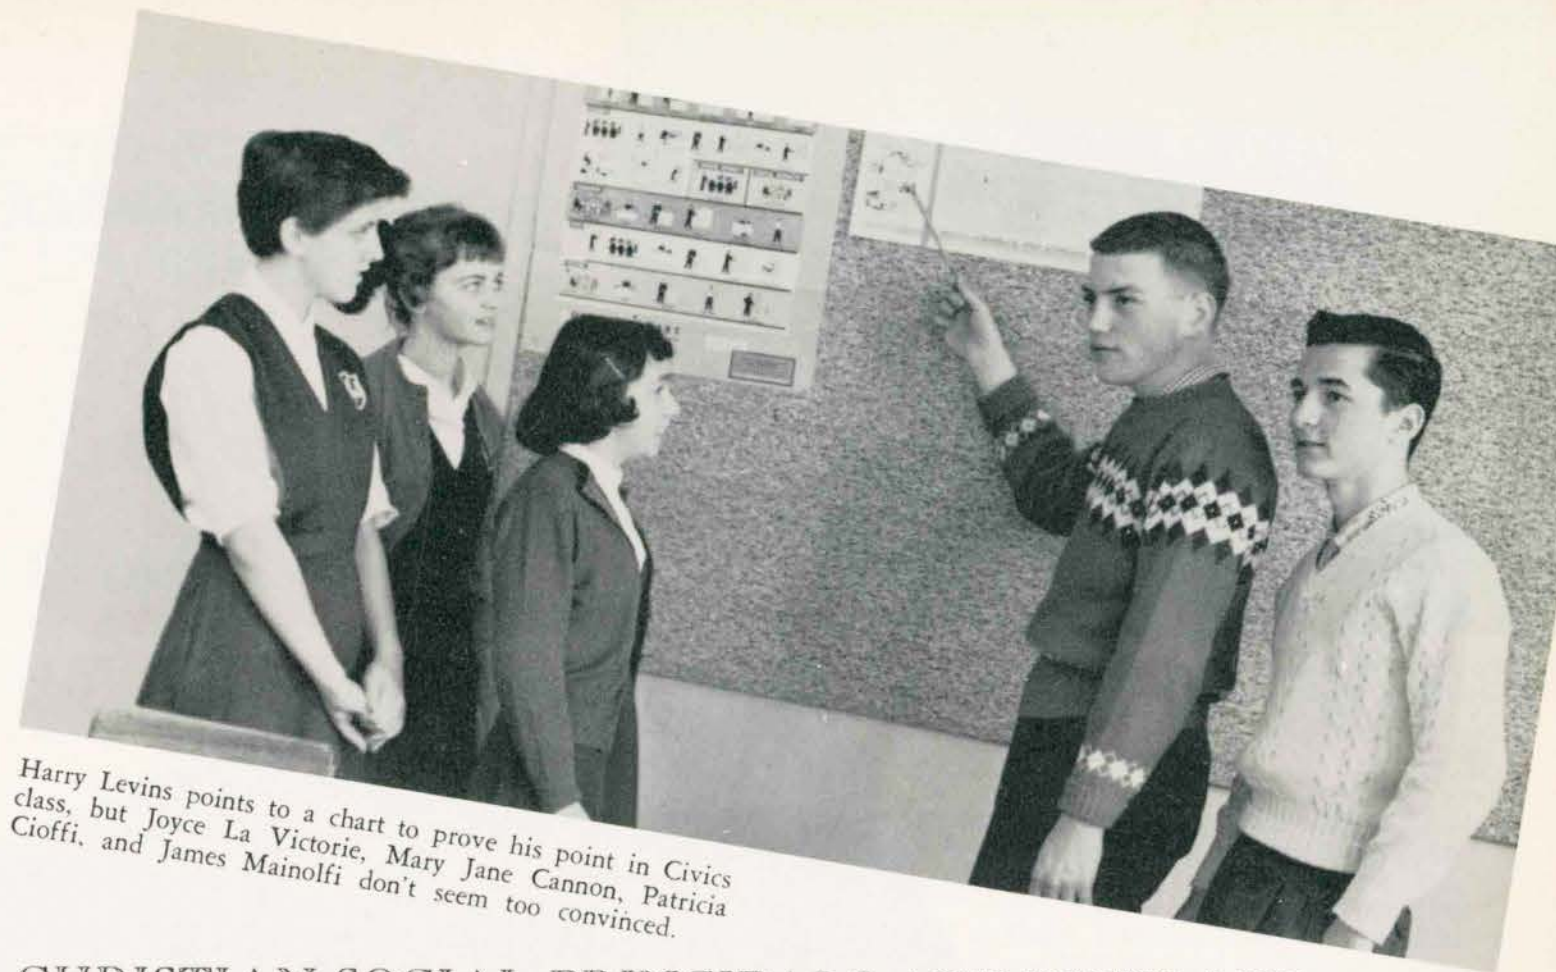

Panelists were Marilee Daly, Johanna Esposito, Theresa Dalto, Margaret Riordan, Sandra Grace, Patricia Slattery, and Brenda Miglorie.

Richard Taylor, David Gouchoe, George Farrell, John Gilligan, Edward Layden, Thomas Terenzini, John Camarda, and James Eggleston made a tape recording as part of the program.

Quorum present for night assembly! James Eggleston, Mary Kay Mulhern, Patricia Fontano, Bonnie Dumouchel, Edward Layden, Ann Mercer, Brenda Miglorie, Madeline Mangan, and Sister Anna Marie study overtime, preparing for the U.N. test.

AT M.S.J.

Harry Levins points to a chart to prove his point in Civics class, but Joyce La Victorie, Mary Jane Cannon, Patricia Cioffi, and James Mainolfi don't seem too convinced.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL PRINCIPALS ARE INSTILLED

Johanna Esposito leads a discussion on the racial problem in the United States during a Sociology class.

Now, according to this map . . . Mr. Cioffi discusses Economic Geography problems with Peter Small, Frank Flory, Harold Looby, Marilyn Haley and Joseph Lafaso.

Next year's secretaries, A. Young and E. Gallo, receive a helping hand from Sister Julia Marie.

WE PREPARE FOR A CAREER — IN OFFICE —

Sister William Marie trains a class of future salesmen.

Typing at a steady, accurate pace while Sister William Marie looks on are M. Zullo, C. Faulkner, N. Ryan, C. Fleming, L. Gillam, M. Carmada, S. West, R. Graves, and J. Parizo.

In Office Practice class, Sister John Joseph prepares L. Quesnel, M. La Victorie, M. La Pine, E. Gallo, and M. Perkins to meet the challenging duties of the business world.

WATCH THAT RED LIGHT—Francis Heald, Jane McCue, Fred Lorman, and Mary Agnes O'Brien gaily await a driving lesson with their instructor, Mr. Moore.

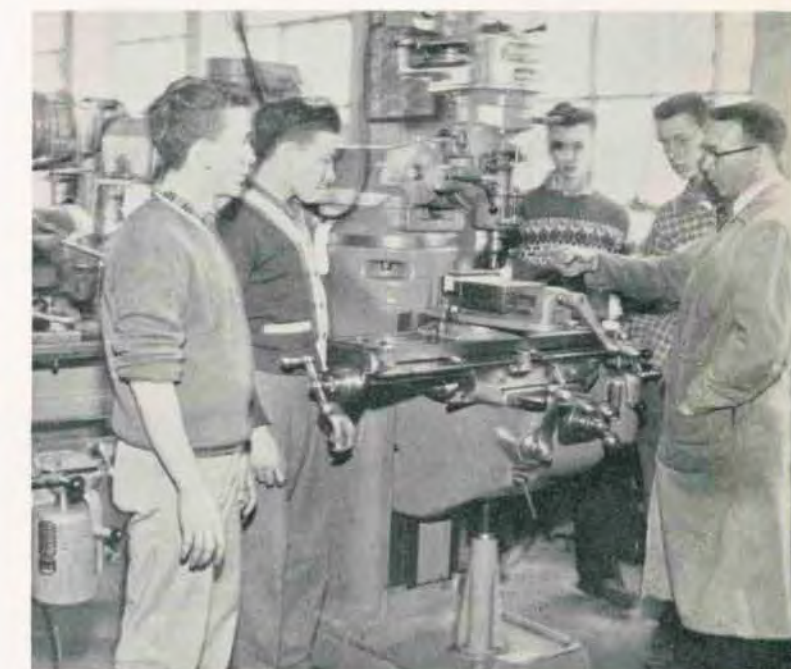

IN HOME —

IN SHOP

YOUNG MACHINISTS—Charley Reardon, and Richard Callahan look on as their instructor explains a complicated machine to them and two Rutland High students.

HERE'S HOW—T. Zullo, R. Vignoe, J. Savery, R. Dell Veneri, J. Cassarino, A. Wood, D. Pockette, J. Miles, D. King, A. Baccic, J. Flory, R. Iefrancoise study woodworking two afternoons a week at R. H. S.

WE ENJOY A HOLIDAY —
WHILE OUR TEACHERS
GO TO SCHOOL

TEACHERS TAUGHT—Business Education Day was sponsored by several Rutland industries in order to acquaint junior and senior high school teachers of the relationship between their curriculum and the needs of the business world. The teachers attended conferences and panel discussions and visited several important firms.

SAMPLE, SISTER? Sister William Marie reaches for folders containing ideas on extra work for unsuspecting students.

YOU SEE—Sisters M. Clementine and John David listen as attentively as they wish their pupils would.

THE PRICE IS RIGHT—Sister Agnes Marie (right) put her mathematical genius to good use when the teachers were asked to give an estimate of the salaries paid annually by the participating firms. She calculated within a few cents of the correct answer, and won the leather briefcase which Sister St. Michael admires.

PERSONALITIES

SALUTATORIAN

MURIEL LAVICTOIRE

CAROLYN JOHNSON

VALEDICTORIAN

HONOR STUDENTS: Barbara Allard, Michele Farrell, Patricia Slattery, Phyllis Moscatello, Elizabeth Holden, Ann Mercer, Donna Cotrupi, Marilyn Johnson.

Because of her whole-hearted participation in studies and activities, Jane Lord received the Outstanding School Citizen Award, donated by the American Legion Auxiliary.

David Small and Michele Farrell dared to "stand tall, think tall and see tall." They are this year's recipients of the I Dare You Award.

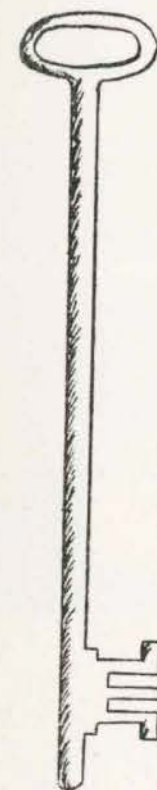

Ann Mercer and Richard Taylor received the Babe Ruth Award for sportsmanship.

The American Legion Auxiliary Science Award won by Barbara Allard.

Let Honor Be Given Where Honor Is Due

Barbara Allard was presented with the Balfour Award, given for excellence in scholarship.

GEORGE DUMOUCHEL

The Green Key is given to a pupil from each class who has given outstanding service to his class and to the Academy during the year.

ANTHONY MARRO

WILLIAM GUINNESS

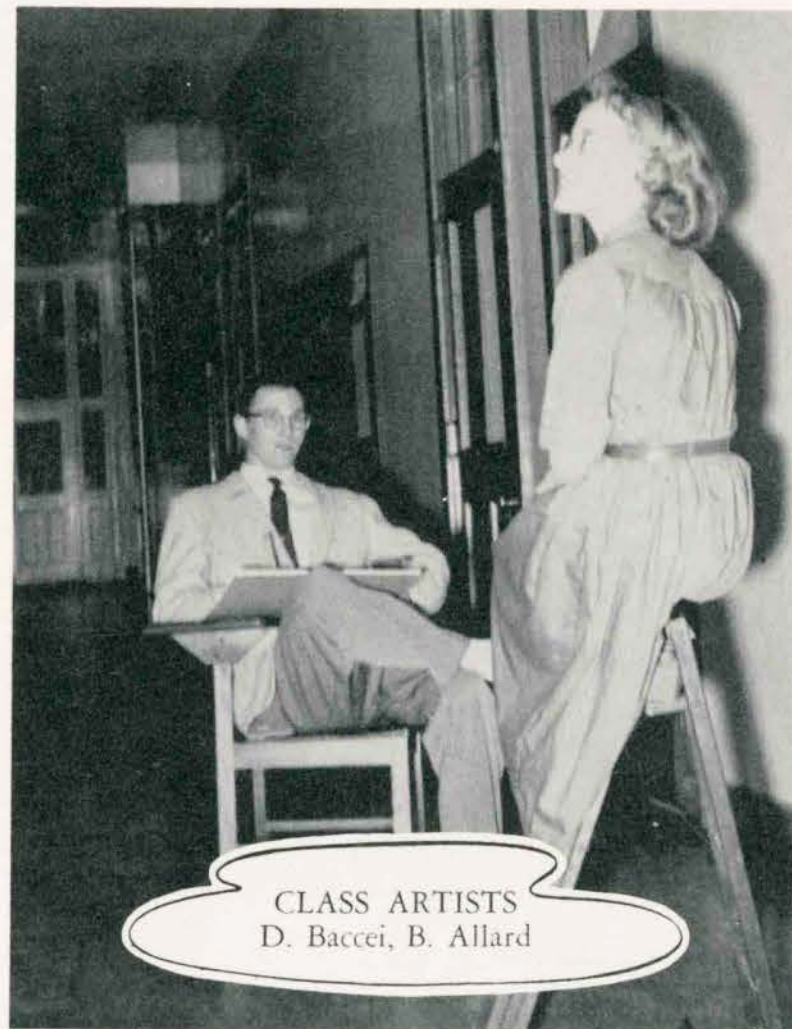

JAMES GAROFANO

The Howe Scale Company awards a prize to the pupil with the highest average in shop courses. Salvatore Bellomo was this year's winner.

THE BAND

And there shall be music wherever they go—but especially in Burlington when members of the M.S.J. Band, Patrick Terenzini, Frances O'Connell, Paul Anderson, John Durkee and Carol Johnston take part in the All-State Music Festival.

Smiling and happy are Frances O'Connell, drum major; and (left to right) Anne O'Rourke, Nancy Parsons, Mary Agnes O'Brien, Paula Flory, Patricia Bove, and Carol Johnston, majorettes.

Our band marches briskly down Merchants Row on Veterans' Day.

LEND COLOR AND MUSIC TO SCHOOL LIFE

Every year, members of the band, under the direction of Major Pelton, entertain their parents and friends in a Spring Concert.

GLEE CHORUS

First row: Major Pelton, Joanne Ferrari, Marcia Perkins, Patricia Hannon, Mary Ann Burke, Delores DeBlois, Phedre Walterding, Tonya Geraw, Eva Pellerin, Jean Gennette, Thomas Corcoran. Second: Johanna Esposito, Phyllis Moscatello, Sandra Surrell, Maureen Connors, Ann Burke. Third: Nancy Layden, Marie Raymond, Donna Cotrupi, Ellen Gallo, Brenda Miglorie, Mary Margaret Woods. Fourth: Richard Taylor, George Costello, Carl Mazerillo, George Farrell, Robert Johnson, Stephen Pfenning. Fifth: David Gouchoe, Richard Noble, Robert Lanzillo, Michael Shanahan, John Johnson. Sixth: Thomas Halpin, Edward Layden, James Nolan, Thomas Terenzini, Francis Heald.

Music is in the air as Jimmy Nolan, John Johnson, Frank Heald, Tom Terenzini, Tom Halpin, Ed Layden, Bob Paul, Carl Mazeriello, Steve Phenning, and Dick Noble take part in sectional practice under Sister Joseph Marie's direction.

Preparing to represent M.S.J. at the All-State Music Festival are Ellen Gallo, Marie Raymond, Marcia Perkins, and Mary Ann Burke.

Echoes of the angels' hymn were heard when the Glee Club, under Major Pelton's direction, entertained the student body at the Christmas Assembly.

CHARACTER LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP SERVICE

Members of two years' standing in the National Honor Society stand behind newly initiated members. They are: James Garofano, Marie Raymond, Donna Cotrupi, Mary Ann Burke, Frances O'Connell, Elizabeth Holden, Phyllis Moscatello, Mary Lawrence, Barbara Allard and David Gouchoe. Missing is Sally Burke, Vice President.

N.H.S. president David Gouchoe and secretary Donna Cotrupi pose with sponsor, Sister John Joseph.

Father Lynch congratulates David Small, after presenting him with N.H.S. pin.

The Josephite chapter of the National Honor Society is the highest organization in the school. Only those students may belong who have manifested extraordinary character, scholarship, leadership and service.

The Student Council is an organization comprised of members elected to represent the student body in all matters of concern to the entire school. Many school activities are channeled through the Council, thus giving students practical experience in scheduling, organizing and managing.

OF

P. DuBray, M. K. Mulhern, M. Daly, V. Gennette, C. Johnson, T. Dalto, M. Farrell, M. A. Burke, E. Gallo and M. Raymond are busy at their "seatwork."

FUTURE TEACHERS ALL! First row: Rita La Motte, Pamela Miglorie, Martha Fleming, Mary Ann Levins, Marie Raymond, secretary; Lorraine Reilly, historian; Michele Farrell, president; Nancy Parsons, vice president; Mary Ann Burke, songleader; Mary Ellen Burke, Penny DuBray, Ellen Gallo, Mary K. Mulhern, Therese Dalto. Second: Sister M. Monica, Moderator; Paula Flory, Dolores Small, Dolores Picucci, Ann Monette, Mary Kay McDonough, Katherine Cillo, Michele Ford, Virginia Gennette, Marilee Daly, Charlene Daly, Sandra Surrell, Linda Daly, and Mary Ann Lord.

Delegates to the United Nations Model Assembly and to Girls' and Boys' States are chosen for their qualities of leadership and service.

The U.N. Model Assembly was held in Plymouth, N. H., May 3-7, 1957. Its purpose was to acquaint high school students with the function and aims of the United Nations. Elizabeth Holden represented Mt. St. Joseph.

BOYS' STATE

Richard Taylor, John Carmada, David Small, James Garafano, James Eggleston and George Farrell were sent by M.S.J. to Norwich University where, for one week, they learned how the Vt. State Legislature operates.

GIRLS' STATE

Marie Raymond, Phyllis Moscatells, Johanna Esposito and Barbara Allard took part in Girls' State, held at Vt. Junior College. Phyllis was elected Secretary of State.

MOTHERS AND FATHERS CLUB

For eight years, the Mothers and Fathers Club has been actively and loyally backing the Academy in both scholastic and extracurricular fields. The Club provides the parents with an opportunity to become acquainted with the teachers of their children and to better understand the policy and principles of the school.

The support given to us by this organization does not end with a mere attendance at monthly meetings or declaration of interest, but also includes financial assistance. This year in their concern for our welfare, the parents assured the continuance of football at M.S.J., sponsored the Iowa Tests, defrayed the expenses of sending two student representatives to Girls' State and Boys' State and banqueted the members of all three athletic teams.

MR. THERON YAGER—president

Other officers are Mr. John Lovett, vice president; Mrs. Rita Bishop, secretary; and Mrs. Anna Terenzini, treasurer.

Freshmen-for-a-night are these mothers and fathers as they review their x's and y's with their children's algebra teacher, Sister Miriam Theresa.

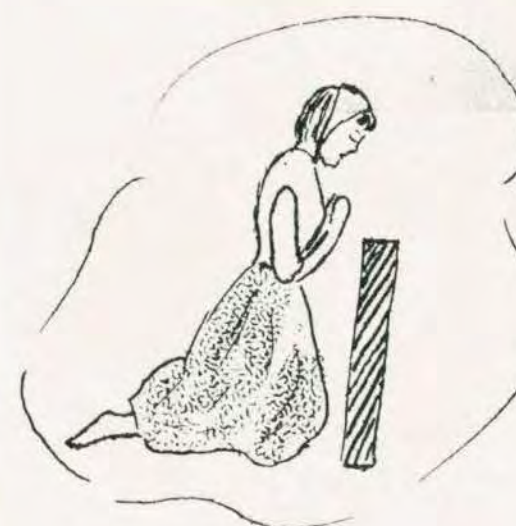

These parents sit in a senior homeroom and learn from Sister Julia Marie how their sons and daughters are being prepared to meet the exacting demands of office work.

David Small explains the C.Y.O. Teenagers' Social Code to an interested group of parents.

D(eadline) DAY—and we made it! Pat Kelly, Pat Fontano and Bonnie Dumouchel leave for the post office with that last check and those last pages.

Editor-in-Chief Johanna Esposito and her assistant, Phyllis Moscatello check final Clarion copy.

CLARION REPORTERS—They get the news! Seated: Rema Baccei, Pat Fontano, Pat Slattery, Therese Dalto, Marilee Daly, Mary Margaret Woods, Mary Jean

Cotrupi. Standing: Eleanor Purinton, Tonya Geraw, Joanne Cassidy, Pat Kantorski, Phyllis Perry, Kay Caggigee.

Art Editor Jaime Bernier sketches a layout for Sports Editors Harry Levins and Tony Marro.

Capable typists are Sandra Reilly, Marilyn Johnson, Sally Gleason and Carol Johnson.

Advisor Sister John David and Muriel LaVictoire proofread the stencils.

The Clarion keeps Acads informed

More reporters . . . Seated: Charlene Daly, Judy Quigley, Sandra Miglorie, Judy Woods. Standing: Pamela Miglorie, Peggy Fleming, Nancy Cannon, Linda Yager, Ann O'Rourke and Bonnie Cooper.

And more reporters! Seated: Phyllis Carle, Mary J. McGarry, Martha Marro, Nancy Fucci, Janice Celentano. Standing: Mary McDonough, Catherine Cillo, Jean Garofano, Anita Johnson and Paula Flory.

Mary McCue, Pat Terenzini, Mary A. Levins, Lindell Abbott, Louis Esposito and Mary C. Alexander see to it that the news is on time.

Phyllis Perry, Tanya Geraw, Judy Woods and Nancy Fucci are ready to be served at the Clarion banquet.

All the world's a stage—Sister M. Imelda's budding thespians are, first row: Jean Ann Maronni, Patricia Marfuggi, Madeline Mangan, Therese Dalto, Barbara Allard, Brenda Miglorie. Second: Charlene Daly, Mary Jane Cannon, Bonnie Dumouchel, Shelia Daly, Donna Dupree. Third: Joan Hanley, Virginia Gennette, Marilee Daly, Marilyn Johnson. Fourth: David Gouchoe, Edward Layden, Thomas Terenzini, Brian Eldridge, Frank Heald, James Garofano.

THE STARS OF TOMORROW

THE TRYSTING PLACE is the title, and, directed by Barbara Allard, won top place for the seniors in the Senior-Junior division of the one-act play contest. Here, Dave Gouchoe reprimands Brian Eldredge as Bob Lanzillo watches.

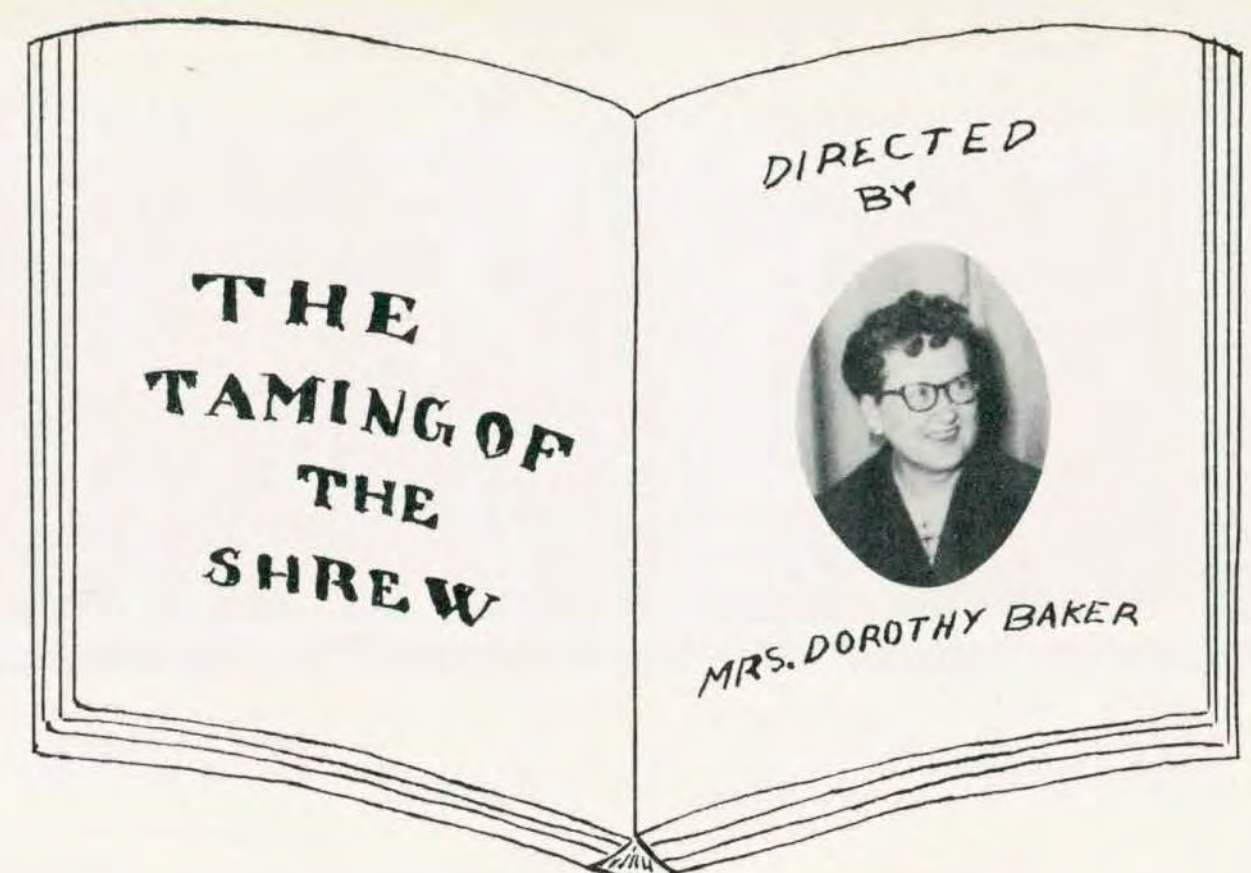

Barry Burke bows profoundly to Pam Miglorie as Bill Shouldice and Joanne Ferrari look on. This scene from 'Georgie Porgie' helped the frosh capture the prize in their division. Mrs. Durkee directed the play.

Patricia Milne directed the Junior production, Ridiculous and Sublime. Linda Keezer comforts Lorraine Reilly but Jamie Bernier thinks the child is pampered.

Drama within drama is portrayed here in this scene in The Greener Grass. Ann O'Rourke, Tom Halpin and Anita Johnson witness an unexpected event as the couch breaks down. Director was George McKeon.

David Gouchoe, Lorraine Reilly, Barbara Allard, Frank Heald, Tom Halpin, Larry Abbott, Pat Burke, Jim Garofano, Sandra West and Dave Small worked together to make the play, in the words of the judges "a tremendous performance."

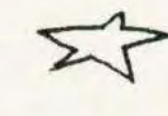

A toast to their acting! In costume are, seated: L. Reilly, D. Gouchoe, P. Burke. Standing: B. Allard, L. Abbott, S. West, T. Halpin and F. Heald.

Katherine SANDRA REILLY

For the second year in a row, Mount St. Joseph won first place in the regional division of the State One-Act Play contest. The Academy entry THE TAMING OF THE SHREW, was highly lauded by both audience and judges.

Petruccio THOMAS HALPIN

THE SENIOR CLASS PROUDLY PRESENTS H.M.S. PINAFORE

The Senior class play took a new and different form this year in the presentation of an operetta. H.M.S. PINAFORE, was staged in the Academy gym, February 13, 14 and 15, and met with unbelievable success.

SMILING HAPPILY over Pinafore's success are directors Sister Joseph Marie, Sister Bernard Michele, Sister Imelda and Major Pelton.

"THEY RENT WITH SONGS THE AIR ABOVE"—Chorus members—First row: M. McKirryher, D. DeBlais, J. Ferrari, M. Conners, J. Gennette, E. Pellerin. Second: A. Burke, M. Woods, T. Geran, N. Layden, P. Walterding, P. Hannon. Third: C. Mazariello, S. Pfenning, R. Paul, J. Johnson, J. Shanahan.

ORCHESTRAL ACCOMPANIMENT for Pinafore was provided by Mary Jane Cannon, Thomas Corcoran, Nancy Parsons, Anthony Marro, Kathleen Carbine, Frances O'Connell, John Durkee, Eva Dumouchel, Mary A. O'Brien, James Kelly, Paul Anderson and Carol Johnston.

PRINCIPALS in the operetta were Marie Raymond (Buttercup), Tom Terenzini (Captain Corcoran), Dick Noble (Tom Tucker), Mary A. Burke (Josephine), George Costello (Ralph), George Farrell (Dick Deadeye), Johanna Esposito (Hebe), Thomas Halpin (Sir Joseph).

THE UNSEEN CAST: These students made up the business staff of PINAFORE. In front is Patricia Fontano, Manager. Others are, first row: Michele Farrell, Mary C. Mulhern, Elizabeth Holden, Muriel La Victoire, Barbara Allard. Second row: Ann Mercer, Elvira Bellomo, Ann Hurley, Jane Lord, James Garofano, Anthony Marro, Mary L. LaPine, Penelope DuBray, Patricia Slattery, Margaret Riordan and Patricia Kelly.

PULL THAT TRIGGER! Prompters Mary Ann Foley and Paula Flory coach Mary Ann Burke and George Costello.

LET'S MAKE UP—Judy Parizo, Barb Allard and Virginia Gennette apply the grease paint to Ellen Gallo, Tom Halpin and Sandra Surrrell.

Seniors, Dramatics Club, Glee Chorus and Band co-operated whole-heartedly in the production of PINAFORE. Special commendation is due to those students who worked quietly and faithfully "behind the scenes."

STEADY, THERE—Dave Small, Ray Reilly and Bob Johnson hang scenery.

HARD AT WORK during the — rehearsal.

Sophomore debaters Terry Vincent, Jean Garofano, Catherine Cillo and Anne Monette enjoy a minute of relaxation before stating their views on foreign aid.

Last Minute Check-Up—Sister Anna Marie gives final pointers to freshman Mary Ellen Burke before her debut.

RESOLVED:
WE WILL DEBATE

PIANO GRADUATES

Mary Margaret Riordan, Mary Ann Burke, Elvira Bellomo and James Garofano presented a concert of piano selections, Sunday, January 26. All four will receive High School Music Diplomas in June.

One of the highlights of our school year is the student retreat, when, for three days, books and activities are laid aside and we devote all our time to our spiritual life.

Father Fortier of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate directed this year's retreat, which was held January 22, 23 and 24.

WE TAKE TIME OUT

Father Lynch distributes Holy Communion during the daily Mass offered in St. Peter's Church at 11 o'clock.

Our Retreat Master—Father Fortier

TO SPEND THREE DAYS WITH GOD

Underclassmen listen attentively as Father Fortier explains the importance of the correct attitudes toward God in our daily life.

Fourth row: Coach Cioffi, Joe Courcelle, Nolan, P. Courcelle, Durkee, Nottle, Creed, Lafaso, Guinness, Stanzone, Halpin, Terenzini.

Inexperience, lack of weight, and injuries hampered the Mountie Eleven. Considering all this, the Academy had a very successful season!

The boys never gave up—even after the injuries of the senior co-captains, Bud Farrell and Dick Taylor, two of the most valuable players on the team. The Green Wave played to the best of its ability and we're proud of our boys!

A GREAT DAY FOR THE GREEN WAVE

November 11 really was!

Knowing the student body, band and cheerleaders were behind them the M.S.J. eleven marched onto the gridiron with a tremendous spirit!

Pointwise, Rutland won but the Mounties put up their best fight of the season and scored a moral victory.

Break that line!

Team! Team! Team!

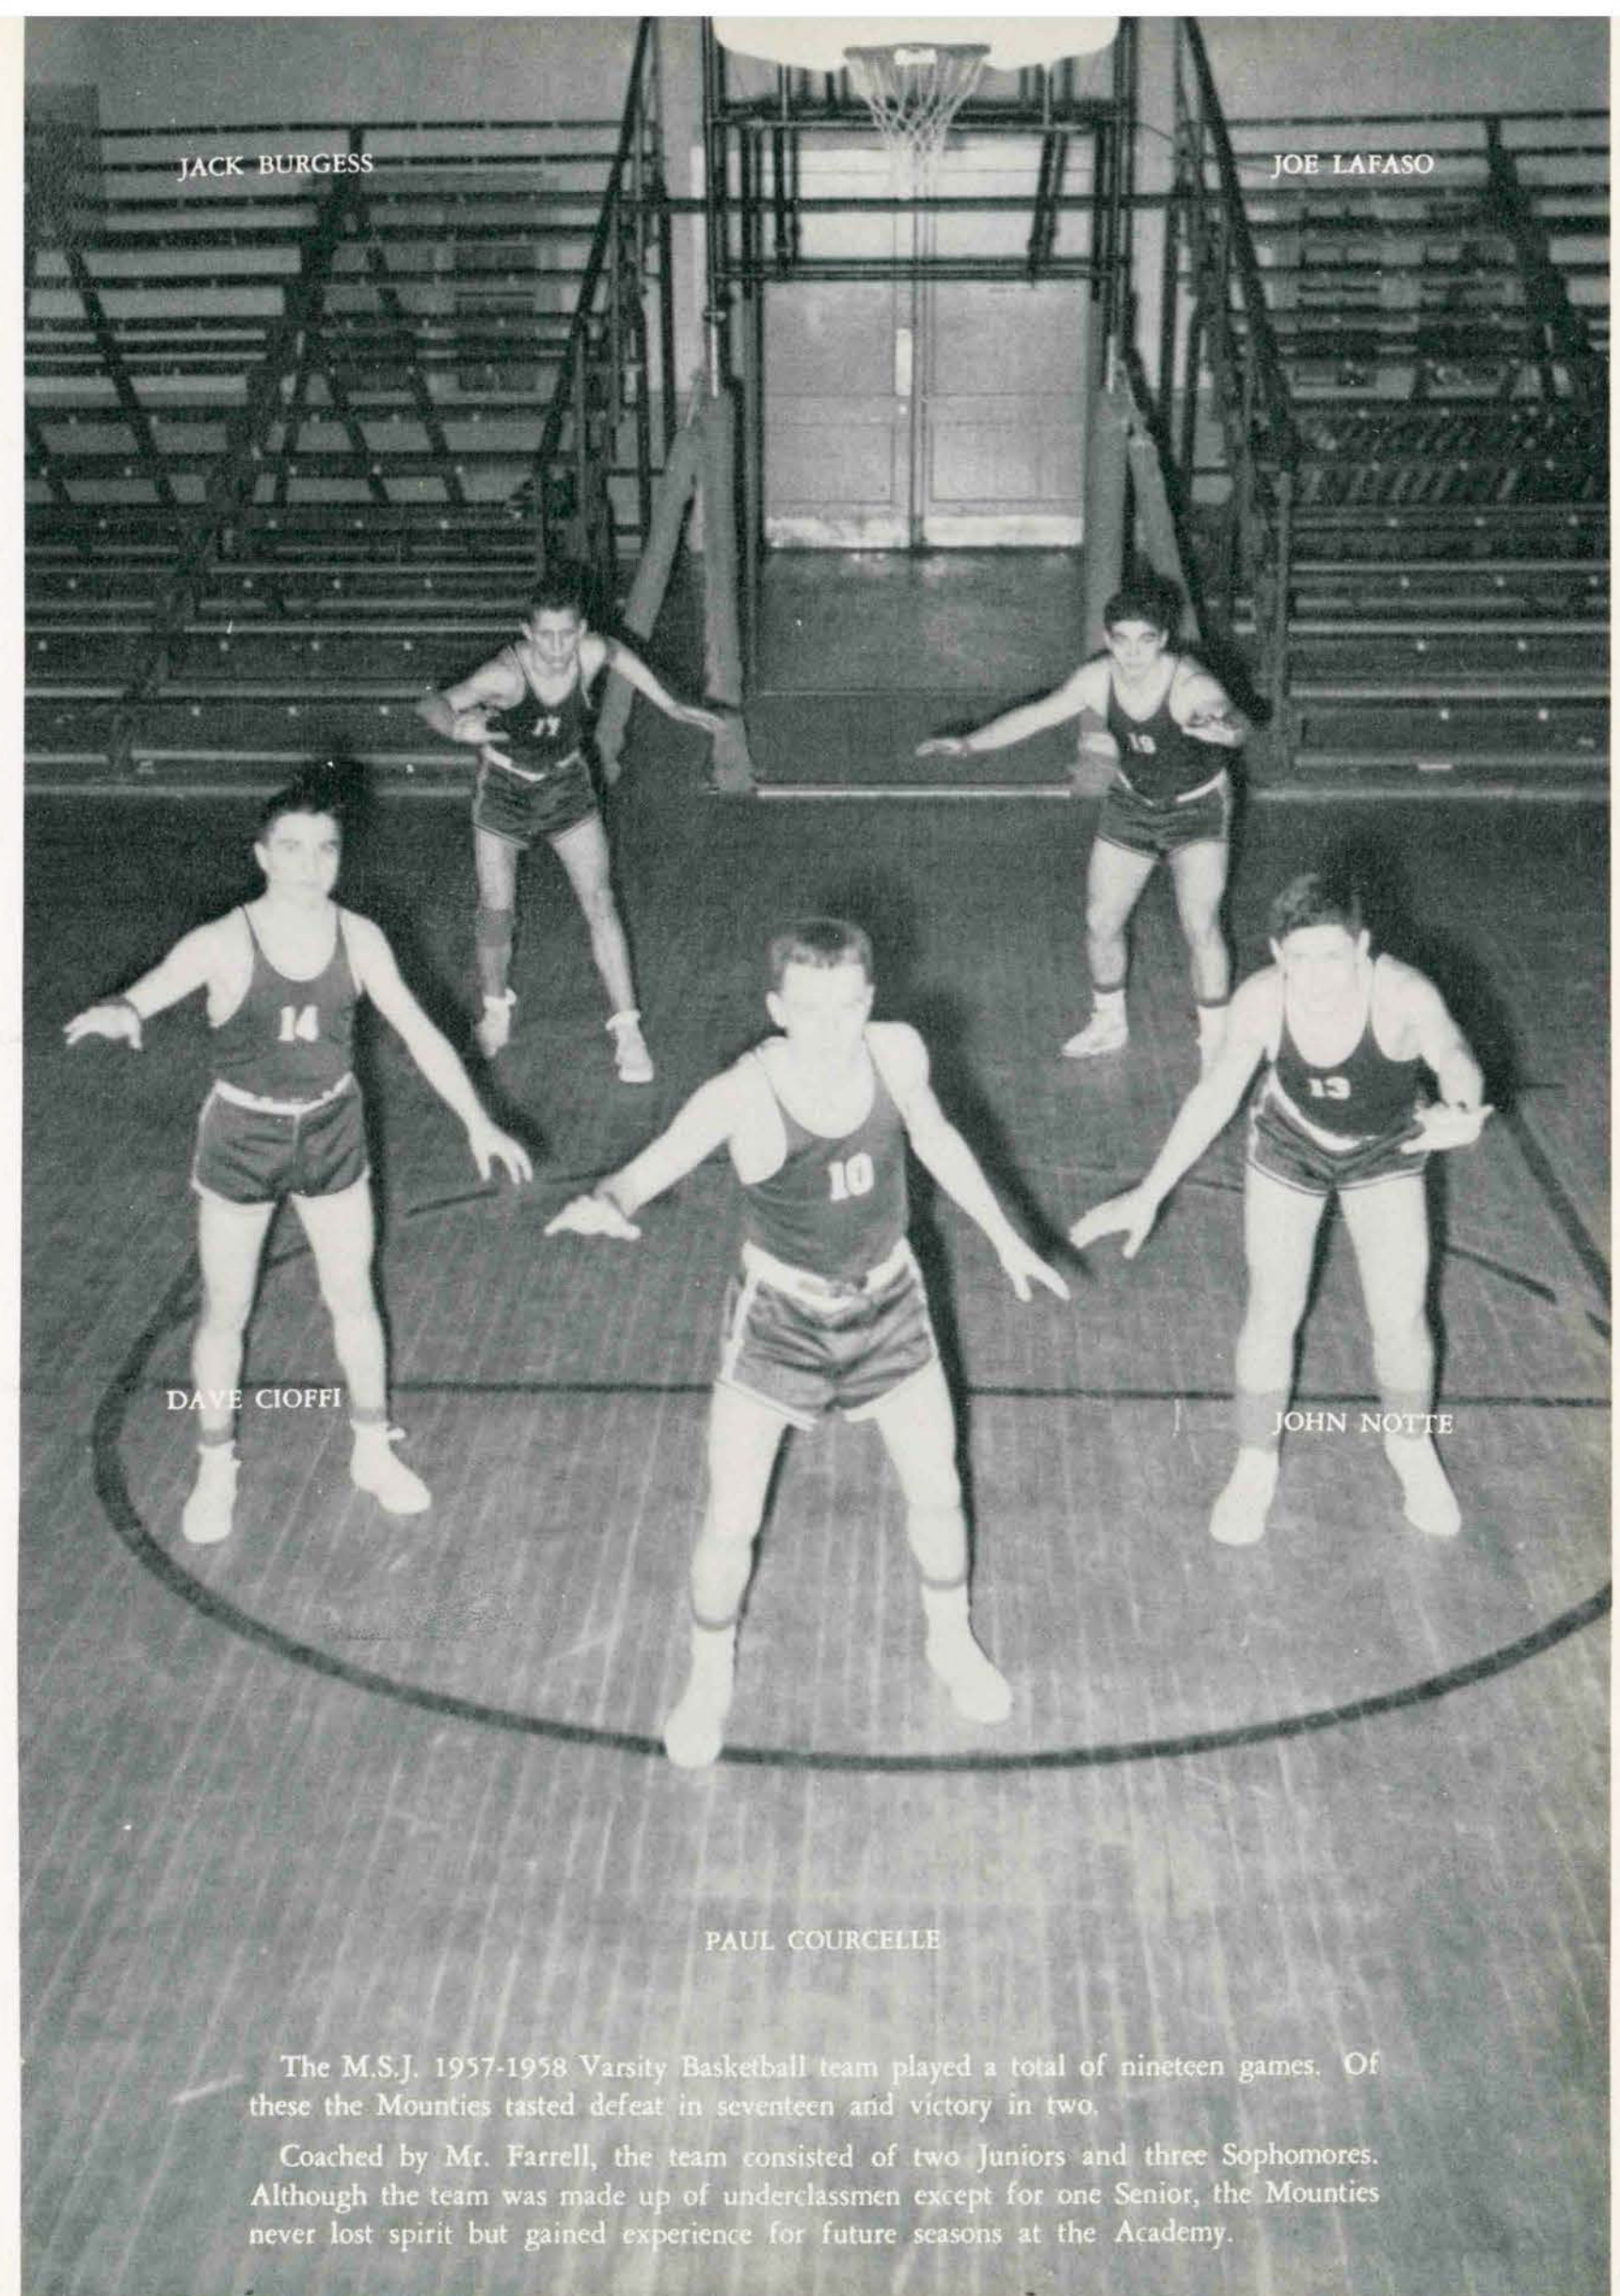

Ooooooh ...

At the half, the bands of both schools joined to form patriotic symbols.

Here, Roger Pike, R.H.S. drum major, and M.S.J.'s Frances O'Connell lead their bands in "Military Escort."

Such precision!

DAVE CIOFFI

JOHN NOTTE

PAUL COURCELLE

The M.S.J. 1957-1958 Varsity Basketball team played a total of nineteen games. Of these the Mounties tasted defeat in seventeen and victory in two.

Coached by Mr. Farrell, the team consisted of two Juniors and three Sophomores. Although the team was made up of underclassmen except for one Senior, the Mounties never lost spirit but gained experience for future seasons at the Academy.

REBOUND, JACE, REBOUND! Jack Burgess fights to gain ball for the "Mounties" as Courcelle and Notte anxiously wait to take possession.

LAFASO DRIBBLES IN FOR LAY-UP! Joe Lafaso exhibits his fabulous dribbling as Paul Courcelle rushes toward the scene of action.

"O Brother Ma
by Roy Ringwald

O Might-y Fa- ther fold to Thy Heart Thy chil- dren; Our thanks

Thee a- scend on wings of song; Here with St. Jo- seph we have learned to love Thee, — To hon- or Thee — with ev'-ry deed and prayer. Fol- low with rev- erent steps the great ex- am- ple Of Him who ho- ly work was do- ing good; Then will all gra- ces from above de- scend. — From ho- ly Ma- ry's heart — of per- fect love. — Then with a strength- ened heart we go to face the — world with high i — deals — of truth; Faith —

— shall be called our guid- ing light to God And in its path will lie the way of peace.

Annually on the first Sunday of May, the girls of the graduating class assist at Mass with the members of the alumnae.

AS ALUMNAE,
WE HONOR HIM
AS WE HAVE HERE —

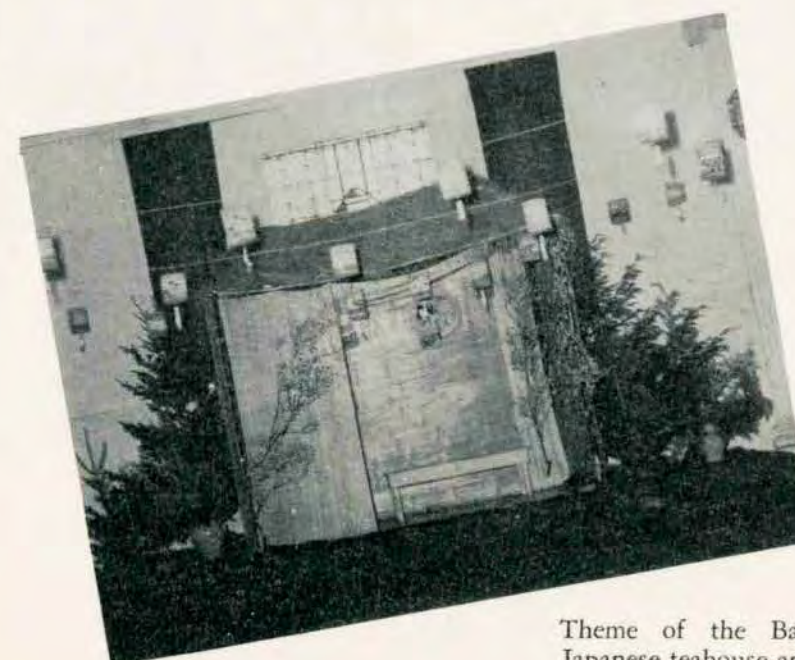

Michele Farrell speaks to the alumnae on behalf of the senior girls at the May Breakfast following the Mass.

The 1958 graduates enjoy themselves as guests of the alumnae at the June Social held this year at the Knotty Pine.

Their Majesties James Garofano and Ann Mercer reign over the Senior Ball, June 2.

IN OUR SOCIAL LIFE —

Theme of the Ball; "Sayonara," is accented by Japanese teahouse and Oriental design.

Bonnie Dumouchel proudly and happily displays the coveted Service Award, given by the National Honor Society to the senior outstanding for participation in M.S.J. activities.

At the Awards Assembly, ten new members were received into the National Honor Society by President David Gouchoe. Reciting the N.H.S. pledge are Muriel LaVictoire, Edward Layden, Patricia Burke, Ann Mercer, Marilyn Johnson, Ann O'Rourke, Mary Agnes O'Brien, Claire Perfetti, Patrick Terinzini, and Patricia Slattery.

Elizabeth Holden receives the American Legion Auxiliary science award from Mrs. Roberts. This prize was given to the senior having the highest average in science. Through an error Betty was not credited in the Mount as the recipient of the award.

VARSITY SQUAD—First row: J. Layden, P. Courcelle, R. Bates, B. Eldredge, R. Taylor, J. Lafaso, W. West, J. Durkee. Second: M. Pedone, J. Burgess, C. Mazzariello, J. Burgess, Coach Farrell, J. Carvey, J. Notte, D. Cioffi, A. Marro.

GRACES DESCEND TO US
FROM HOLY MARY'S
HEART OF PERFECT LOVE.

The student body sings May hymns while representatives of the home-rooms present floral tributes to Our Lady.

The Queen's Court is composed of those senior girls who have some form of Mary in their name.

Father Ready gives Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Father Finn explains the choice of their right vocations in life to attentively listening seniors.

THEN WITH A STRENGTHENED HEART —

The Senior Retreat, conducted this year by Rev. Arthur Finn, opened Wednesday, June 4. For two days, the graduates pondered their future role as young Catholic lay leaders.

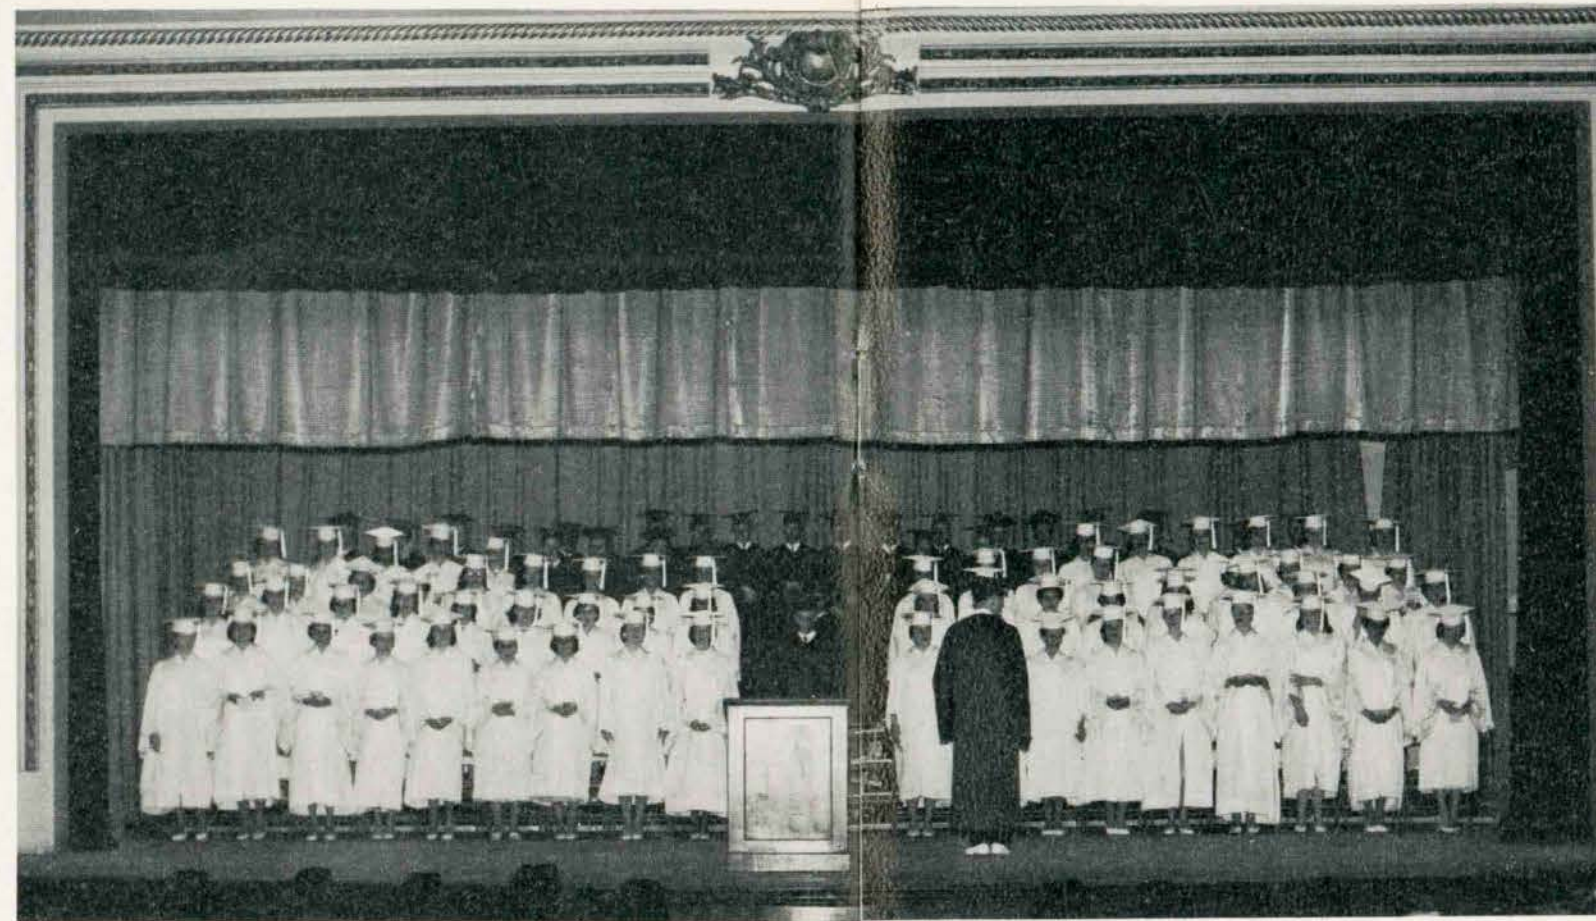

Father Finn, James Timbers, Theresa Caggige, Mary A. Burke, Mary C. Mulhern, Joseph Earle, enjoy a few minutes of relaxation between conferences.

OUR LADY OF LOURDES

One hundred years ago, Our Blessed Mother appeared to a humble, unlettered peasant girl of the town of Lourdes, France.

Since that memorable year, the word "Lourdes" has become famous all over the world and the little peasant has been declared to be Saint Bernadette of Lourdes.

The centenary of Our Lady's apparitions was honored at the Class Night Program by a series of tableaux and a choral recitation depicting the visions of Bernadette.

Seniors stand to sing their class song, directed by James Garafano.

Co-Editors, Eva Marie Dumouchel and Patricia Fontano, present the '58 Mount to its camera-shy dedicatee, Mother M. Concepta.

WE GO TO FACE THE WORLD WITH HIGH IDEALS OF TRUTH

The message of Our Lady of Lourdes is explained by Carolyn Johnson, our valedictorian.

Mary Lou LaPine portrays Bernadette the nun and Patricia Fontano is Our Lady in this scene from one of the Lourdes tableaux.

The eagerly-awaited yearbooks are being given to the seniors by Mr. Farrell and Mr. Moore.

Father Finn, served by David Small and David Gouchoe, celebrates Mass for the seniors on their graduation day.

FAITH SHALL BE CALLED
OUR GUIDING LIGHT —

Father Lynch smilingly gives last minute instructions to M. Sheldon, A.

AND IN ITS PATH
WILL LIE THE WAY
OF PEACE

Monsignor Kennedy presents diplomas and congratulations to the members of the graduating class.

Communion Breakfast following the Mass was enjoyed by all.

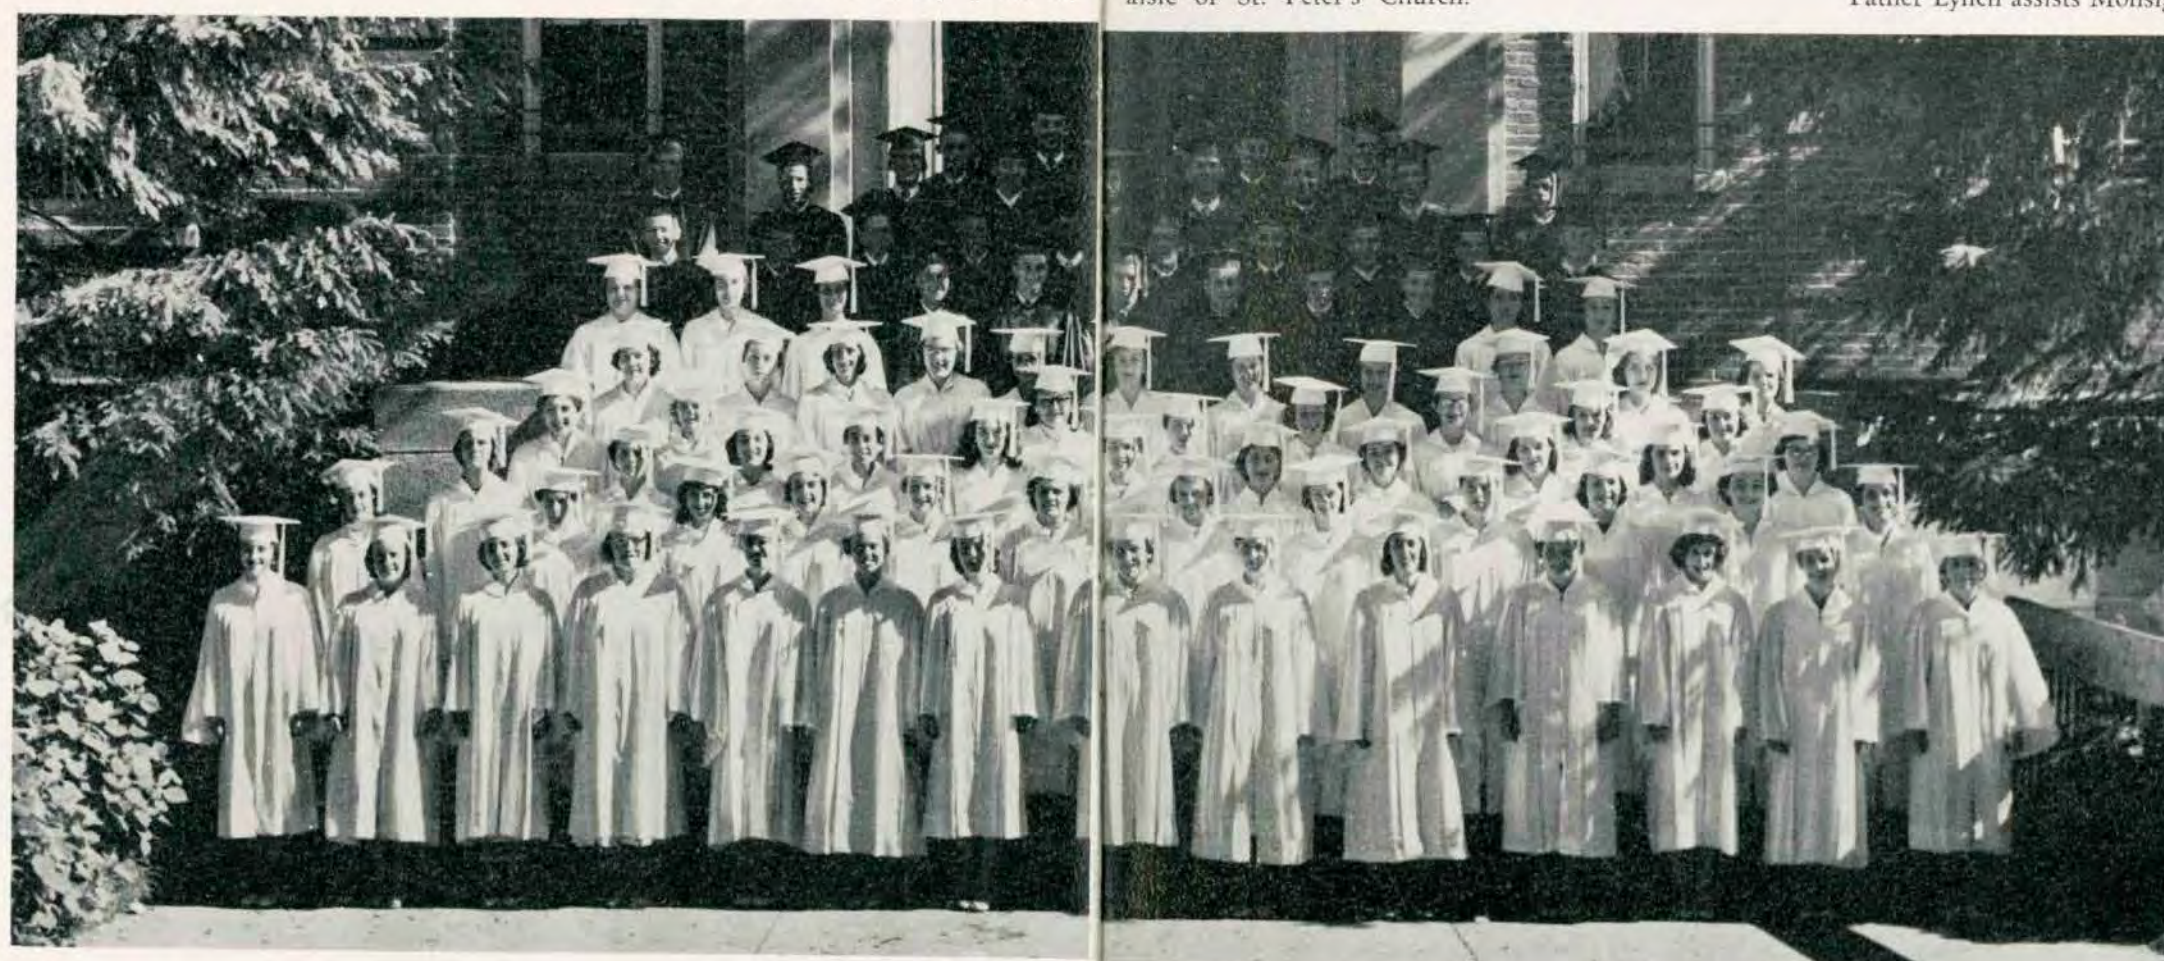

Seniors march solemnly down the aisle of St. Peter's Church.

Father Lynch assists Monsignor Kennedy in the awarding of diplomas.
